

June 2017

---

May-June 2017 Reviewer of the Issue - Hamid Pakmanesh

Hamid Pakmanesh

---

Hamid Pakmanesh MD is a staff at Kerman University of Medical Sciences, Department of Urology. He has been teaching urology residents as assistant professor in the Bahonar teaching hospital, Kerman, Iran since September 2014. He is head of urology operating room department, Shahid Bahonar Hospital, Kerman, Iran. He born in Kerman in May 1978. He earned medical degree from Shahid Beheshti University of Medical Sciences (SBMU), Tehran, Iran (1996-2003). He performed his residency at Labbafinejad

Hospital, Shahid Beheshti University of Medical Sciences (SBMU), Tehran, Iran (2005-2010) and completed his endourology and laparoscopy training under supervision of Professor Simforoush and Professor Basiri and coworkers in the same center (2012-2014) after two years of working as general urologist in Sirjan, Iran (2010-2012). He has established the urolaparoscopy in Kerman, Iran in 2014. He performed numerous cases of laparoscopic surgery including laparoscopic donor nephrectomy for the first time in Kerman. His field of interest is laparoscopic pyelolithotomy with more than 100 cases during past years and solo sonographically guided PCNL with more than 200 cases per year. Moreover, he has worked in the field of laparoscopic surgery for female pelvic organ prolapse. He has published more than 20 scientific articles. He also have contributed in writing two books in Persian language including Iranian textbook of urology 2013 and General urology 2009. He is an active Member of the Société Internationale d'Urologie (SIU) and Endourological Society as well as Iran urology association, Iranian Endourology and Urolaparoscopy Society and Iranian association of surgeon. He has been serving as reviewer for Urology journal, Archives of Trauma Research, Journal of Kerman University of Medical Sciences and Urology and Nephrology Research Center.